Reflection: What is Stirring Within. For the last few years I have been teaching a course called "The Heart's Desire and Social Change." The class helps students discover where the deepest longings of their lives meet the needs and suffering of the world. More often than not students can identify a global issue in the "outside world" that challenges them. But they frequently struggle with the personal issues of the "inside world" that confound them. Without spending time in personal reflection before God, the heart can feel like a foreign territory. Unless we periodically disengage from the busyness of daily life, it is hard to listen to what is stirring within us. When Jesus first sees John's disciples in today's Gospel, he asks them about their heart's desires: "What are you looking for?" In turn they also ask him a question, but it is not "what are we to do?" They ask first about where he dwells, where he lives in this innermost heart. Discipleship begins with dwelling in Christ, entering the place of his loving embrace, staying under the gaze of his tender mercy. It involves living with a heart open to love, a heart willing to change, a heart ready to serve, a heart disposed to pray, like Samuel, "Speak, for your servant is listening." The world is hungry not for busier people but bigger-hearted people. They seek not only people who work for God but people who are so at home with God that they become a doorway into God. ~Fr. Daniel Groody

Catholic Planned Giving and Estate Planning Seminar

The Catholic Diocese of Dodge City is pleased to sponsor: "Estate Planning for Catholics" presented by Tamara L. Davis, Attorney at Law and Legal Counsel for the Diocese. These seminars are part of the Department of Development's stewardship education program and concentrate on the Christian steward's right to plan for the prayerful and orderly distribution of one's estate. The purpose of these seminars is to inform Catholics within the diocese of their rights to ensure that their wishes and the needs of their family are carried out as intended. At the same time, we will illustrate some gift planning techniques people may use in coordination with their estate plan and to give back to God some of the material blessings He has bestowed on all of us. People generally recognize the importance of giving to their parish and diocesan ministries during their lifetime; not too many consider similar gifts in their estate plans and wills. Our vision is to show you the opportunities!

Please join us at one of the Seminars listed:

Sunday Eveings with Bishop Barron

An adult faith formation class is being offered on Sunday evenings, beginning January 21st, from 6:00-7:00p.m. at the St. Boniface Parish Center. "Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues" is an engaging presentation, led by Bishop Robert Barron, concerning the seven deadly sins, those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our flourishing in relationship with God and one another. Based on Dante's writings, the seven deadly sins correspond to the seven levels of Dante's Mt. Purgatory. Pride, envy, anger, sloth, gluttony, avarice, and lust are all presented as patterns of dysfunction within us that lead to unhappiness. Bishop Barron shows us how to counteract these seven sinful patters through a conscious process of opposition, which are the "seven lively virtues." The seven lively virtues offer antidotes to each sin and help set us on the right path to healing and happiness. Each session includes a DVD viewing by Bishop Barron and questions for reflection that help us reflect on how the material is relevant to our own life and experiences. Bishop Barron presents the program in nine 90-minute sessions. The last session suggests participation in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The nine sessions will be completed on the Sunday before Palm Sunday. Parishioners are invited to attend any or all of the sessions.

Website Sponsorships Available

~~ In the weeks ahead, our parish representative from Solutio, Inc., will be setting up the advertising for our website for the year.

~~Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you are interested or just curious as to prices and want more information, please contact 620.213.4162 or Sponsorship@SolutioSoftware.com.
