Pentecost Sunday

Thoughts on Today's Liturgy

Reading 1: Acts 2:1-11 The Spirit works through the preaching of the apostles.

Reading 2: Galatians 5:16-25 The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Gospel: John 15:26-27; 16:12-15 He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

Theme: Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to continue God's communication with them.

Reflection: The Living Link. The descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost traditionally marks the birth of the Church. But it's hardly the first time the Spirit shows up. In the book of Genesis, the Spirit (ru'ah) hovers over the waters at the moment of creation (Gen 1:2). The psalms sing of God's Spirit renewing the face of the earth (Ps 104:30). Jesus' whole life is carried along by the Spirit. From the moment of his conception ("The Holy Spirit will come upon you," Luke 1:35) to his first words as a teacher ("The Spirit of the Lord is upon me," Luke 4:18) to his final promise ("Receive the Holy Spirit," John 20:22) – the Spirit serves not only as the bond of love between the Son and the Father but also as the living link between Christ and his people. The Holy Spirit is nothing other than God alive and active in the world. If Jesus is how God burst forth into human history, then the Spirit is how God continues to burn in the human heart. The Spirit is God's love for each one of us. It is God's loving presence within me. The beauty of God's gift is that it comes to us as we are. When the apostles share the gift of the Spirit, the people who listened did not need to learn a new language. Instead they confessed, "we heard them speaking in our own tongues the mighty acts of God" (Acts 2:11). The one Spirit does not obliterate the amazing diversity of the Body of Christ, but rather makes possible the marvelous contribution of each and every part to the life of the whole. ~Edward Hahnenberg

CHURCH NEWS

Breakfast

Please join us for breakfast after Mass on Tuesday morning, May 22nd.

Father Michael Peltzer

Father Michael Peltzer of the St. Joan of Arc Parish of Harper County will be leaving for a new assignment in Wichita in the middle of June. He has been serving the St. Joan of Arc Parish for 20 years and has made many friends in the community. There will be a farewell picnic held at the Danville School on Sunday, June 3, 2018 at 12:45 p.m. Please join us to wish Father Peltzer the best in his new position. We are asking all who attend to provide a side dish, dessert, and your own table service. Meat and drinks will be provided.

Human Trafficking

Be aware that online technologies give traffickers the ability to exploit a greater number of victims and advertise their services globally. Social media opens the door for predators to gain access to your child. U.S. Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking. Sistersagainstrafficking.org.

AROUND THE DIOCESE

Camp Cristo Rey

Camp Cristo Rey, a camp designed to immerse young people in the beauty, goodness and truth of nature and their Catholic faith will be held in June at Camp Lakeside outside of Scott City. Two sessions will be offered. The first camp is for students who have completed their 5th/6th grade years and will be June 10th through June 12th. The second camp for those who have completed their 7th/8th grade years is scheduled for June 14th through June 16th. Cost for each camp is $230. Register online at: www.dcyouth.org/camp-cristo-rey.

Dechant Foundation Golf Classic

Save the date and make plans now for the 2018 Dechant Foundation Annual Golf Classic, September 7, at Mariah Hills Golf Course in Dodge City. Get your teams organized and enter soon. The proceeds benefit the Retired Priest's Fund of the Diocese of Dodge City. Call Mark Roth at 620.227.1535 or email mroth@dcdiocese.org to register and for more information.

Prayer and Action

Prayer and Action is a 5-day mission trip that takes place within Southwest Kansas. Participants stay at the host parish in simple accommodations; prepare their own meals; join the parish for daily Mass; and serve local families that are in need. Typical services include painting, minor repairs, house and yard cleaning, etc. and is carried out for Catholics and non-Catholics alike. If you would like to take a group of students from your parish, or if you are an individual who is interested in helping out with this important mission, please check out our website for more information and the on-line registration forms - www.dcyouth.org/prayer-action. The participants – college and high school students and adult chaperones – grow by putting their faith directly into action, and practice the Christian lifestyle of “prayer without ceasing.” (1 Thessalonians 5:17)
