Sacrament of Reconciliation 30 minutes prior to Mass or by appointment

Reflection: Inexhaustible Nourishment. And look! You come to me; you want to be with me; and you invite me to your banquet! You wish to give me heavenly food and the break of angels to eat – nothing else, indeed, than your very self, the living bread who came down from heaven and who gives life to the world! See from what place such love comes, how excellent the honor that radiates from it! What great thanksgiving and praises are due to you for this gift of yourself! ...It is a thing of wonder and a thing worthy of our faith that goes far beyond human understanding that you, O Lord, my God – true God and true man – are fully present under the appearance of bread and wine and that you are eaten by those who receive you, without being consumed! Lord of all things, who have need of nothing, you have chosen to live among us through this Sacrament. Keep my heart and my body unblemished so that with a happy and pure conscience I may often celebrate and receive your mysteries for my eternal salvation – your mysteries, which you have given to us and made holy for your honor, celebrated forever in memory of you. Rejoice, my soul, and give thanks to God for leaving to you in this valley of tears so noble a gift, so unique a comfort. As often as we celebrate this mystery anew and receive the Body of Christ, so often do we perform the work of our redemption, and so often do we share in all those things that Christ has earned. Christ's love never fades, and his immense graciousness is never exhausted.

Word of Life

“To couples who cannot have children of their own, you are no less loved by God; your love for each other is complete and fruitful when it is open to other.”

Pope Saint John Paul II's February 13, 1982 Homily. 1982 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission.
