Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thoughts on Today's Liturgy

Reading 1: Ezekiel 2:2-5 They are a rebellious house but shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Reading 2: 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 I will boast in my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

Gospel: Mark 6:1-6 A prophet is not without honor except in his native place.

Reflection: A Prophet's Heart

God comes, and his ways are near to us.

God saves in history.

Each person's life, each one's history,
is the meeting place God comes to.

How satisfying to know one need not go to the desert
to meet him,

need not go to some particular spot in the world.

God is in your own heart.

Who will put a prophet's eloquence into my words to shake from their inertia all those who kneel before the riches of the earth—
who would like gold, money, lands, power, political life to be their everlasting gods!

All that is going to end.

There will remain only the satisfaction of having been,
in regard to money or political life,
a person faithful to God's will.

One must learn to manage the relative and transitory things of earth according to his will, not make them absolutes.

There is only one absolute: he who awaits us in the heaven that will not pass away. St. Oscar Romero

Word of Life

"O God our creator... through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society." United States Conference of Catholic Bishops "Prayer for Religious Liberty"

21st Annual Catholic Family Conference – “Go to Joseph”

21st annual family conference will be held August 6-8th at the Century II Convention Center. There are brochures in the back of each church. You may sign up by going to catholicfamilyconference.org or signing up through the brochure.

A Note of Thank you from Deacon John Stang - On behalf of my family, I want to thank everyone in the Catholic Diocese of Dodge City who organized, participated in, or attended my diaconate ordination on June 19th at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe. I also want to thank everyone for the generous gifts, cards, prayers, and support. Specifically, I want to thank Bishop Vincke for ordaining me; the Chancery Staff; those who had a part in the liturgy; St. Andrew’s Catholic Church in Wright for hosting the dinner on June 18th; those who provided food and helped serve at the reception after the ordination; Jon and Heather Gleason, St. Andrew’s in Wright, St. John the Baptist in Spearville, and the COLG for housing clergy and seminarians; and the COLG for hosting the ordination. It was a very beautiful and memorable experience! God bless all of you! Sincerely, Dcn. John Stang
