19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thoughts on Today's Liturgy

Reading 1: Jeremiah 38:4-6,8-10 A man of strife and contention to all the land.

Reading 2: Hebrews 12:1-4 Let us persevere in running the race that lies before us.

Gospel: Luke 12:49-53 I have come not to establish peace, but rather division.

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As humans, we enter into securities and all kinds of insurances in order to protect our future, should there be any unexpected eventualities. However, as Christians, we know that there is no better future for us than the one we are expecting hereafter, and that is heaven. Jesus therefore encourages us not to hold on too hard to material possessions because they cannot give us the real future security we are looking for. When Jesus says, "Sell your belongings and give alms," he is not literally telling us now to go and dispose of all our possessions in order to serve him better. He is however admonishing us not to be so much attached to what we have, to the neglect of reaching out to those in need. Benevolence is equated to an inexhaustible treasure that we need to store up in heaven. The rich man who found himself in hell was not as a result of the fact that he was rich. Not at all, rather, it was because he failed to reach out to the poor beggar, Lazarus who lay at his door. I believe, if he had reached out to him on earth, he would have been qualified for a share of what he had stored up in Lazarus who is in heaven. The needy we find around us here on earth serve as the treasure boxes in which we need to store up our riches for our future use in heaven, where no thief can reach nor moth destroy. -Father Emmanuel

CHURCH NEWS

Call to Volunteer

St. Boniface and Holy Rosary are in need of a volunteer to plan the Sunday music liturgy every other week. Brie Stevenson has graciously been serving in this role for several months, but as she is leaving we are in need of a volunteer to take over. It involves selecting the music from a plan book and emailing to the choir members. If you would be willing to serve, please call Kathy at 620-294-5231. Thank you.
