25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

God does not allow his faithful to perish under any domineering power. When they cry out to him, he stretches his right hand and saves them from the pit of destruction. The Lord says, "I am the salvation of the people, should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them and will be their Lord forever". Thus, God swore an oath to protect and deliver the disadvantaged in society. He therefore warns those who with economic power take undue advantage of the vulnerable in society, forgetting about the dignity we all share as human beings created in the image and likeness of God. God declares, "Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land! You who are determined to buy the lowly for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Never will I forget a thing they have done (Amos 8:4, 6-7). We are called upon today as faith community to pray for our leadership in all spheres of life, whose decision could adversely affect the vulnerable in society that the good Lord may grant them the grace to respect the dignity of all people and thereby treat them with love so that we may all live a quiet and tranquil life.

-Father Emmanuel
