Sacrament of Reconciliation 30 Minutes before Each Mass

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Prophet Malachi portrays God as the God of justice who deals with each one of us as our deeds deserve. God's plan for humanity in general is positive. Hence, he will not allow evil to triumph over good forever and he will not allow the innocent and the righteous to suffer in the hands of evildoers forever. God who created us in his image and likeness has made his intention known to us. He says, he has thoughts of peace for us and not thoughts of affliction. If actually we believe that we are the true reflection of God's image to one another in the world, then our intentions for our neighbors should not differ from God's positive plans for humanity. This is precisely the reason why God intervenes when he sees some people deviating from the right path and making others suffer. God has given his word to those who suffer unjustly in the hands of others, "When you call on me, ... I will listen to you" (Jer. 29:12).
