34th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe today, we acknowledge Jesus as the king who rules over our lives and who is the source of our salvation. To be under the kingship of Jesus involves a collective decision of a people called as a community to serve God, and it also involves the decision taken by individual members of the community of faith seeking protection, welfare and salvation through Jesus Christ. As the tribe of Israel went to David to seek his kingship over them in the past, today, Christendom has also gathered to acknowledge Christ as their savior and their king. Jesus possesses all the needed qualities to be the king of our lives. He is the image of the invisible God; the firstborn of all creation, hence the responsibility of our welfare solely lies in his hands. When we succumb to Christ, our salvation is assured. The decision of an individual to be under the kingship of Christ involves a personal declaration and action. The time and place of this personal declaration do not matter so much. What matters most is the decision one has to make. We need not delay in making this unique decision because we may not be as lucky as the criminal who encountered Christ at the last moment of his death and surrendered his life to Christ and said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" Our time is now! Let us take advantage of it and surrender to Christ.

—Father Emmanuel
