As we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost today, commemorating the birth of the universal Church, let us recall the greatest gifts given to humanity through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The Pentecost experience reminds us of God's gift of unity, togetherness, trust in one another, and peace of God which surpasses all understanding. If we understand one another, there will be that trust and confidence built in one another. With trust, we can stand together as a people of God called by his son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to serve humanity. In the world that is plagued by tension, misunderstanding, hatred, division and wars, we need the spirit of the Pentecost to be always at work in us. If we have the Spirit of God always at work in us, the tempest may rage, but we will be at peace with one another and with God. Let us remember that peace is not necessarily the absence of war, but the presence of God in our lives. May the celebration of the feast of Pentecost today bring peace to hearts that are troubled, and unity to families that are divided. May the wounds of hatred and division in families, communities and even in our Churches be healed so that the true peace given to the world by Christ may be experienced by all mankind. May the Lord, once again, send out his Spirit and renew the face of the earth. -Fr. Emmanuel
