2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

If individuals fail to appreciate their gifts from God, and rather turn to envy the gifts of others, there is chaos, disintegration and stagnation of our communities. God, in His wisdom has given us to one another to foster the process of growth and development of humanity. Let us therefore have the understanding as individuals that we are, because someone else is. As humans, we may struggle to do our best but when our best is not yielding the needed result, let us not be discouraged. Let us have faith in Christ who is able to turn water, which seemed colorless, tasteless and unattractive into sparkling red wine that is attractive and full of taste. He turns the ordinary into extraordinary situations in our lives. If our lives seem meaningless, unattractive and tasteless, let us turn to Mary, the Mediatrix of all graces. She is always ready to intercede for us.

It is the same God who promised the Israelites to do all it takes to vindicate them that we also serve. God will make our vindication shine like the dawn. He says, all that we ask through His Son, He will grant us. But first, we have to create a conducive environment for the promise made to us by God to become fruitful. Let us be ready to use the gifts we have from God to serve one another and when our human efforts fail, let us turn to Mary our Mother to intercede for us.

-Father Emmanuel
