The Most Holy Trinity

For us Catholics, the celebration of the Solemnity today reaffirms the work of the Trinity, which manifests in our day-to-day activities. We acknowledge our belief in the Trinity when we pray. We are indeed baptized into the life of the Triune God; and in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, we acknowledge the presence of the Holy Trinity. The essence of my reflection today is not to prove the reality of the Trinity or to unravel its mystery, but to try and identify the role and manifestation of the work of the Trinity in our lives.

The family is a unit of a household consisting of different individuals who play their respective roles. This goes for all situations whenever we come together to pursue a common goal. This calls for united effort while everyone tries to play their respective roles in order to achieve the common good. In our communities, what are the instances that threaten our co-operation with one another to achieve our common goals and aspirations? Do we pass on to others what we cannot do at a time and trust them, to equally do so? A community whose life is centered around only an individual hardly makes progress. It is our prayer that God will give us the grace to identify the gifts of one another and be able to trust one another so that we can work together as a community faith to the glory of God. -Father Emmanuel

CHURCH NEWS

- St. Boniface: A sincere thank you to all the PSR teachers who have completed a busy year. First Confession, First Communion, and Confirmation all took place in April and May. Shelon Schmidt, Elaine Trantham, Jane Swingle, Wendy Crenner, Mary Pat Eck and confirmation director Kathy Dohm shared much time and many talents throughout the year. Please consider becoming a part of the PSR team this coming fall. We don't teach for the income; we teach for the outcome!!!
- Catholic Charities offers free, compassionate pregnancy support for any woman regardless of faith, race, nationality, or age. We'll walk beside you while you think through options and connect with resources so that you can make the best choices for yourself and your baby. Contact Amy Falcon at 620-227-1590 or afalcon@CatholicCharitiesSWKS.org.
- Struggling to provide food for yourself or your family? Catholic Charities staff members are available to help with the application for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP Food Assistance). Call 620-272-0010.
